What is Biblical Community?

A biblical community is a _____ community.

It is an intentional gathering where followers of Jesus develop authentic relationships, learn from the Scriptures, and provide mutual encouragement, accountability, and care to one another. Biblical Community can take the form of a small group, equipping class, or mentoring relationship.

For where two or three gather together as my followers, I am there among them. (Matthew 18:20 NLT)

A place to be:

1. Fully _____.

As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another. (Proverbs 27:17 NIV)

2. Fully _____.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. (Acts 2:42 NIV)

3. Fully _____ and truly _____.

Dear friends, if God so loved us, then we also ought to love one another. No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God resides in us, and his love is perfected in us. (I John 4:11-12 NET)

CHALLENGE: Evaluate your closest relationships and determine your next steps to build biblical community.
